

Cardinal Heights Middle School

End of the Year
Activities
June 2014

According to the Ministry of Education Guidelines it is mandatory for all students to attend classes until the end of the school year. However, we recognize that parents may have alternate learning experiences planned for their child(ren) for the days after graduation.

Please indicate below if your child will be participating in alternate learning experiences or participating in school activities during the following dates, so we can record this in the attendance program. Please be advised if your child does attend after graduation, regular attendance and adherence to schedules will be required. Students will participate in regular programming for the final three days of school.
