

Confederation Crossword

A Fun Activity for the National Library of Canada's Confederation for Kids Website

Across

- The two European countries most important in Canadian history are Britain and _____.
- Before Confederation, leaders from New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island were already thinking about a _____ union.
- This Father of Confederation from British Columbia changed his name to mean “love of the universe.” (Write his whole name as one word.)
- The newest territory in Canada is _____.
- Two provinces entered Confederation in 1905: Saskatchewan and _____.
- This Father of Confederation became Canada’s first prime minister. (Last name.)
- There were three conferences leading to Confederation: at Quebec, at London, and at _____.
- The newest _____ in Canada is Newfoundland.

Down

- Quebec’s most famous Father of Confederation joined with John A. Macdonald to form a government before Confederation. His last name was _____.
- This province entered Confederation in 1870.
- Manitoba’s best-known “Father of Confederation” led the Red River and Northwest Rebellions, and was eventually hanged. His last name was _____.
- Newfoundland was led into Confederation by Joey _____.