

I like this plan/document but am concerned about the children at the gifted end of the spectrum. There is not enough information and planning for those children. Children at the opposite end of the spectrum are getting additional supports and specialized classes, what support do the gifted children receive?