2. The financial aid office of your school is your point of contact for help/advice
3. Apply at osap.gov.on.ca

In the spring, google “OSAP Estimator” and see if estimates are ready for programs that start in September 2023 and/or January 2024

Scholarships & Bursaries

- Bursary
 - Financial need is important
 - It is more like a “gift” for a need

Types of Scholarships and Bursaries

- Automatic vs. application required
- School nomination vs. direct applications
- Renewable vs. non-renewable
- School based vs. community based
- Merit based vs. financial needs based
- Contests

Scholarships Based on Merit Requiring an Application

These scholarships are a large focus of this seminar because they require time, planning, and other people

Step 1

- Build an academic and personal record
 - This process has already begun and should not stop until you are finished with college/university
 - Grades are important in high school, college, and university
 - Sustained community involvement plays a key role in scholarships
 - Leadership may help you out-compete other more “academic” candidates

Step 2

- Set timelines and due dates
 - Start researching NOW and don't stop. New opportunities may be just around the corner or they may be just about to expire
 - Mark your calendar WHEN applications are DUE and build in extra time.
 - Talk to potential reference letter writers and give them LOTS of TIME to write a letter (two weeks)

Step 3

- Complete applications on time - apply early
- Do exactly what the scholarship requires, not more or less!
- Have a friend/adult proof read
- Don't allow poor planning to become someone else's emergency!

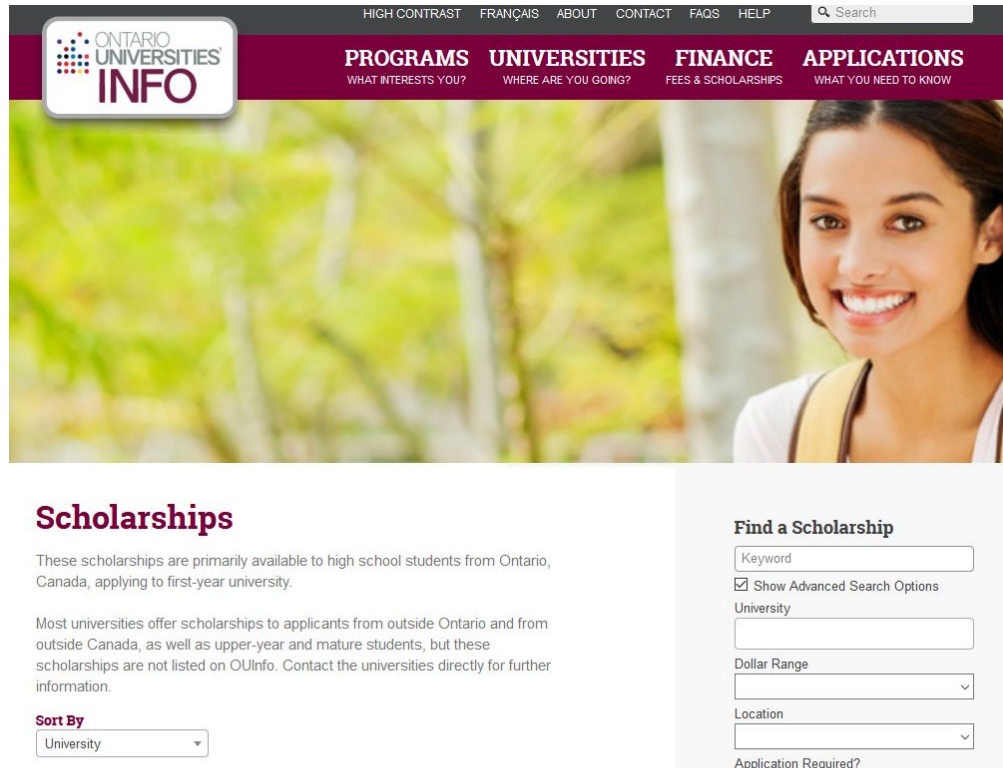

Step 4

- Be appreciative
- Say thanks to those who were a part of your application... even if you don't get selected

A 'Sort By' dropdown menu is set to 'University'. On the right, a 'Find a Scholarship' section contains a 'Keyword' search box, a checked 'Show Advanced Search Options' checkbox, and dropdown menus for 'University', 'Dollar Range', and 'Location'. An 'Application Required?' checkbox is at the bottom of this section. The University of Guelph logo is visible in the bottom left and right corners.
