

Child & Youth
Psychological
Services

Attention Parents and Teachers!

HWDSB and Child and Youth Psychological Services Hamilton, present:

EXECUTIVE FUNCTION STRATEGIES

Real-life tools that will help

A workshop by Sarah Ward, M.S., CCC/SLP Speech and Language Pathologist for parents, teachers and professionals. Come learn how to help children and youth with their organization and planning skills.

Wednesday, April 29, 2015
6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

learn how to support your child/youth to:

1. Create a homework space
2. Organize personal and school materials
3. Record assignments and create a schedule
4. Manage time, tasks and complete long term projects

You will walk away with many simple, ready-to-use strategies and tools for teaching children and youth how to develop independent executive function skills.

Free registration.

Please RSVP to ahewitt@hwdsb.on.ca
Childcare and bus tickets available upon request.

Food bank donations welcome!

Sir Allan MacNab Secondary School
(145 Magnolia Drive, Hamilton, L8N 3L1)

About Sarah Ward:

Sarah Ward is a dynamic speaker who regularly presents on the topic of executive functions to a variety of professional and parent organizations. Her innovative and effective approaches have been featured on National Public Radio in the United States and she has won multiple awards including the Massachusetts General Hospital Expertise in Clinical Practice Award and Faculty in Excellence Award. She works directly with students in her private practice. She has worked with more than 350 public and private schools in Massachusetts, the United States and internationally on how to implement executive function strategies in the home and classroom.