

School Readiness Program

(July and August)

Parents and their children will play and learn together in this interactive, play-based program. They will experience an environment that will stimulate their curiosity and expand their own understanding as they experiment with different materials found in the classroom and at home. Parents will also obtain information on how to ease the transition from home to school.

Hess Street Queen Victoria
Lake Avenue Dr. Davey Cootes Paradise

To register or for more information
Please call: 905-521-0926