

Good evening Dundas Valley Parents

This is a message regarding next week's Student Success Days, which are Wed November 10th thru Friday November 12th.

The final day of classes for Quadmester 1 is Tuesday November 9th. Students who have demonstrated knowledge and understanding of the Overall Expectations for their courses are not required to attend during the Student Success Days. (In other words, if you have earned the credit, you are not required to attend)

Students who have not shown sufficient evidence will have a plan made with their teachers and will be able to use the three days to show more learning with the goal of demonstrating enough additional knowledge and understanding to earn the credit. Students who have met expectations may plan with teachers to submit additional evidence of learning, but the staff focus is to work with those who haven't.

For Period 1 class, students will be able to work with their teachers in person on Wednesday Nov. 10th from 8:05 – 10:30. Space will be provided in the afternoon for those who need to wait for transportation to get home.

For Period 2 class, students will be able to work with their teachers on Thursday Nov. 11th from 8:05 – 10:30. Space will be provided in the afternoon for those who need to wait for transportation to get home.

Noon on Friday November 12th is the deadline for work submission. Students may create plans with teachers for extra support outside these designated times, but all work must be submitted by Noon.

Quadmester 2 begins on Monday November 15th with period 3 classes in the morning, and period 4 classes in the afternoon.
