

The Earl Kitchener Home and School Association Parent Support Library - Est. March 2020

Earl Kitchener Families we have a Home and School Association Parent Support Library available to you!

The Parent Support Library has resources for families looking for further information regarding behaviours, differences, and childhood in general. Books for families to guide and support your family and to support learning and provide more information for those looking to broaden their knowledge on all different types of topics.

With restrictions lifted, EK is once again able to welcome families, parents, and caregivers back into the school to access The EK Home and School Association Parent Support Library!

Please feel free to drop by EK, ring the bell at the front doors, and let the Office Staff know you are there to sign out a book!

Happy reading!
