

HWDSB

To community organizations,

The HWDSB Human Rights and Equity (HRE) Community Advisory Committee is seeking applicants to join the committee.

The HRE Community Advisory Committee meets monthly with a schedule determined by the committee. The committee is responsible for providing the Board of Trustees with advice on specific areas of Board policies and practices consistent with the Ontario Human Rights Code and the Education Act. The Committee also provides advice and feedback using human rights, anti-racist and anti-oppressive approaches to support HWDSB's commitment in identifying and addressing inequities and in creating learning and working environment that are inclusive, equitable and welcoming as outlined in its Equity Action Plan.

The committee shall have no more than 13 members and no fewer than 7. The composition of voting committee members includes community organizations, parents/guardians/caregivers, students and community leaders. Non-voting membership will include up to 2 Trustees, a senior staff representative and other staff resources as required.

The HRE Community Advisory Committee is currently seeking one (1) community organization representative from human rights and equity focused organizations, alliances and/or networks, whose core mission is to promote equity, inclusion, human rights, Anti-racism and Anti-oppression. Organizations can appoint a representative to join the committee. The representative should:

- Have interest, experience (lived experience preferred) and understanding of issues of equity, human rights and systemic oppression in schools and the community at large;
- Have knowledge of diverse experiences of Indigenous communities and equity-deserving communities (Black, Indigenous, racialized communities, Two-spirit and LGBTQIA+ communities, ethno-cultural communities, and people with disabilities and groups that commonly experience discrimination due to ethnicity, ancestry, religion, place of origin and other human rights grounds),
- Be able to attend monthly meetings.

This position is a two-year term and ends on June 30, 2023 with potential extension for a second-year term. If you are interested in participating, please complete and submit this form- Application Form.
