Details:

Note 1: Schools are strongly encouraged to purchase items directly on behalf of the students versus issuing a cheque in the student's name. Records should be maintained on all items (ie: passes, gift cards) or payments distributed.

A limit of $50/month for the school year is necessary for Canada Revenue Agency Requirements. Cash or cash equivalent amounts over $500 per calendar year must be reported on a T4, in which case, the school must collect a SIN number from the student. Any cash or equivalent amounts exceeding $500 are taxable to the student.
