| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. It was the first one laid on this building we all know, a part of the structure where you learn and grow!What is the date?(1 point) | 2. We're caged with some of our smallest little Husky friends, but we still grow big and tall so that shade we can lend.How many do you see?(1 point) | 3. An archway is all that's left on this peaceful piece of grass, what year did this former building hold it's last class?(1 point) |
| 4. A sale you may find on this shining mountain street, but at house #50, the flag shows a healthy yummy treat!What is the treat?(1 point) | 5. At the end of the Ave. some steps you will find, a sign will tell you how many you could climb. How many steps are there? Extra point if you can tell me the name of the person that laid these steps?(2 points) | 6. A world of information is inside of me, go to the back, and tell me how many windows do you see? (back facing the parking lot)(1 point) |
| 7. This building on a corner has a window full of dogs, they'll look after your bunnies, cats and even hedgehogs!How many dogs are in the windows?(1 point) | 8. To this park with a view, you should stop on by, take a swing and let your feet touch the sky.How many swings are there?(1 point) | 9. Built by John William _____ in 1855, love and attention has kept this heritage home alive. What is the name of this house? _____ Cottage(2 points) |
| 10. This place to play is familiar to all, you'll find the KSL General store right behind a climbing wall. What are the amounts of $ found here?(2 points) | 11. This is the next step after Highview and on it 4 stones you will see, use your math skills to know that they add up to _____.What are the numbers?(2 points) | 12. This is the place to go for a cold cone treat, a sign in the window will tell you how many options there are to eat.How many flavors?(1 point) |