

“The Little Girl Who Stayed Up Late”

Book Order Form

Children’s author David Turner is visiting our library on May 29 & 30. He is the father of our very own, Mme. Bentham! He will be sharing his book “The Little Girl Who Stayed Up Late”. David has offered to provide autographed copies of his book to those that are interested. If you would like to pre-order one of David’s books for $10, please complete the order form below and return with a cheque by May 16.

Please make cheques payable to David Turner.

When her grandfather fell asleep reading Lily a bedtime story she decided to go downstairs to get a glass of milk. You won’t believe what she saw! From an elephant wearing roller skates and doing the dishes to a horse wearing sunglasses. Nighttime at this little girl’s house is far from quiet and you can experience all of the excitement along with her!
