Teacher Report	Ms Carrington is working with our Mohawk studies teacher to create a music piece and cultural play. Mr. Kore and Ms Carrington will be working together with grade 6's on an art and music collaboration. Combined band with Ridgemount, "Don't let your sound be flat".	K. Theisson

	Students represented the school well in track with several wins. Girl volleyball made it to the finals. Intermural have just ended and junior boys and girls are in full swing for volleyball. Monday's and Friday's retirees are volunteering to read with Kindergarteners. Looking for more volunteers. Swim meet Nov 5th. Ask for Home and School to deliver pumpkins for display by next Monday. There are no longer donations for prizes for these events, more discussion at the Home and School meeting. Doughnut fundraiser was successful. Our social worker is doing emotion coaching on November 14th for parents and guardians of kindergarten and grade ones. Refreshments will be provided – more info on our schools website. The Children's Garden Project is helping organize our garden project for the Spring. Halloween classes will all have time for dancing and activities in the gym throughout the day.
Principal Report	Some staff members are attending an education program "Disrupting & Dismantling Anti-Black Racism with Critically Conscious Practitioner Inquiry (CCPI). Student's grade 1-8 will have the option to fill out a survey to see how our students are feeling as it relates to their identities. The same survey will be given in the springtime to see if the changes and improvements our school is making have changed the student's answers positively.	Mubina Panju/ S. Carter

	The PA Day staff will be focusing on all our school's goals to achieve a positive climate.
Chair Report	PRO Grant/PEF - Have a family social night drop in with refreshments, opportunity to talk to social worker, teachers and staff. Nov 20th 3-5 and Nov 21st 9-11.
