Telling Tales PJ Storytime with author Andrew Larsen

Wednesday, May 23, 2018, 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Library @ Rousseau Elementary School

Light refreshments, courtesy of Tim Hortons

Free to attend

Andrew Larsen was born in Montreal and lived there until he was 12. The acclaimed author of numerous books, including the Governor General's Award-shortlisted The Imaginary Garden, sometimes Larsen goes looking for stories and sometimes stories come looking for him. He has had many jobs over the years, but once he started a family, Larsen discovered his true calling: he became a stay-at-home dad and started writing. He lives with his wife and two children in a Toronto neighbourhood that has tall trees, old houses, and lots of stories. Come and hear him talk about his latest award-winning books such as A Squiggly Story, The Not-So-Faraway Adventure, Dingus and Goodnight, Hockey Fans.

Telling Tales is a not-for-profit charitable organization. Now in its tenth year, Telling Tales delivers outstanding literary programming for children and youth that raises awareness of the importance of literacy in our communities.
