

Do you ever struggle helping your children with their homework?

Do you feel unprepared when helping your child with math problems?

MATH FOR MOMS AND DADS

HOW TO TUTOR YOUR CHILDREN

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW

Offered in Toronto and Hamilton, this three hour hands-on Humber College workshop is designed to help parents become better math tutors to children of all ages.

Participants will be introduced to ways to better support their children in the learning process, achieve success in completing homework, and understand ways to help their children be more successful in their learning outside the classroom. Though this workshop focuses on math, the tutoring skills can be applied to all subject areas and grades.

COST: $50.00 per person
