About the Program:

The Basketball Academy Program supports student athletes not only in maintaining a healthy balance in their life, but also in receiving the necessary accommodations to support their quest for excellence in both athletics and academic endeavours.

The R.A. Riddell Basketball Academy Program features flexible programming, timetabling and evaluation, as well as individualized athletic training support by qualified basketball coaches.

Our Facility:

- Professional grade Solid Wood Floor in our large gym
- Training centre that overlooks the large gym
- Technologically equipped with iPads and Shoot-A-Way Shooting Machine
- Our students also have the opportunity to train at the David Braley Athletic Centre at McMaster University

Parents provide your child with:

- Sound athletic training in accordance with the Long-Term Athletic Development Model (LTAD)
- Exposure to post secondary athletics through trips to McMaster's David Braley Centre
- A program culture of academic success

"All of my coaches and teachers at Riddell helped me to get ready to play basketball at the next level. They also helped me to pick up study habits that prepared me for the jump to high school."
