

We're
Searching for Volunteers

Creative Writing.

Do you love to help children unleash their imagination?

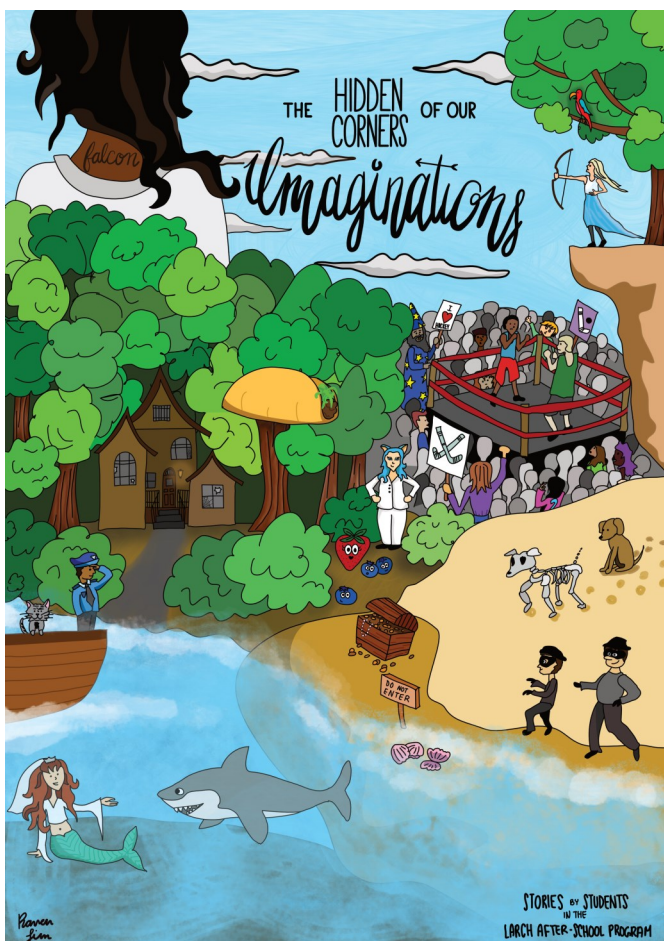

Do you love working with children from Grades 3 to 8?

Do you have/are you looking for experience to work with children?

Are you skilled & passionate about writing?

Are you comfortable working online?

We are in our seventh year of our “Young Authors’ Project.”
Our goal for this project is for each student to write at least one story that will be published in our finished work at the end of our school year.

At the beginning of our school year,
we separate our students into groups and make a writing plan for each individual group according to their writing
level/ability

We review the basic writing skills: parts of speech, setting, character and plot.

Then each child is given the opportunity to create their own story.
They work for the rest of the year completing their story on our Google Classroom.

Every few weeks, we evaluate and edit stories with them. In late spring, we compile each story into a bound book (sample on the left)

At the end of the year, each child receives a copy of their published work.
In the past years, we saw some students increase their word count up to 500%
