

Age 15 to 18?

Get WILD Outside and do something great for the planet!

WILD Outside is a free, inclusive conservation leadership program for youth who want to connect with nature, learn about wildlife, and do great things in their community. The program combines outdoor adventure like hiking, backpacking and canoeing with impactful conservation activities.

Learn more and register at WildOutside.ca

Age 18 to 30?

Change your life. Change the world.

Three distinct stages of learning:

- 1 Wilderness journey
- 2 Science field learning
- 3 Education outreach

Are you 18 to 30 years of age? Ready to take on what could be the greatest adventure of your life? Apply for the Canadian Conservation Corps. Travel Canada. Experience exciting wilderness adventure. Put your conservation ideas into action while making Canada a better place!

Learn more and register at CanadianConservationCorps.com.

